

CERTIFYING STAFF CAT B1 (M/F/X)

For one of our key clients in southern Germany we are currently recruiting multiple Certifying Staff CAT B1.

The positions became available due to an increased demand for qualified maintenance and customer oriented solutions. The company is well established and has an excellent reputation in the industry.

JOB DESCRIPTION

The main tasks:

- perform scheduled and unscheduled maintenance on business jets, RTS
- provide first class & ad-hoc AOG support within Europe
- represent the company to customers and authorities

The requirement:

- you have successfully completed your apprenticeship as an Aircraft Mechanic
- you are a certified CAT B1 staff
- you are type-rated and have experience of minimum 5 years on Citation Mustang, Phenom 100/300 and/or Eclipse
- you are flexible to travel on short notice and open to overtime hours
- you have excellent communication skills in German & English language

The offer:

- Exciting projects in an young & innovative working environment
- Above-average & performance-based remuneration
- Bonuses & allowances above industry standard
- A working place in one of the most scenic areas of southern Germany

If you meet the requirements and you're up for a next step in your aviation career, we are looking forward to receiving your résumé and other supporting documents to

recruitment@th3-aviation.com

Your application will be treated absolutely confidential.